PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ALL CAPE MAY POINT PUBLIC BUILDINGS CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC

Cape May Point – Per Executive Order #103 from the State of New Jersey, in an attempt to contain COVID-19/Coronavirus throughout the State, effective Monday, March 16th, all public buildings in the Borough of Cape May Point are closed to the general public until further notice. Residents and property-owners are reminded, in the case of an emergency, to please dial 9-1-1. During this time, tax and water/sewer bills can be paid via regular mail. As always, property owners are encouraged to sign up for ACH automatic withdraws for tax and water/sewer payments. If immediate assistance is needed for a non-emergent, Borough-related issue, Borough staff can be reached during regular business hours Monday through Friday, from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm.

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY – DIAL 9-1-1

Our website, capemaypoint.org, is a great resource for Borough information. We ask our residents and property owners to please be patient during this difficult time as we do what we can to protect both our community and our employees. We will keep the public updated as new policies and procedures are implemented.
